

Dear Valued Client/Partner,

Re: Working through uncertain times together - COVID-19

During these unprecedented and challenging times, the team at NWT wishes to reassure you of its continued commitment and stability of its service all the while implementing the protective measures for its employees, clients and community.

NWT has set up teleworking for most of its employees. Please feel free to contact your respective relationship person, as per your usual means. You may also call the office between 8.30 to 17.30 Monday to Friday and deposit documents in our mailbox during this time.

We thank you for your continued trust and support during this unprecedented time and wish you and your families, colleagues and friends continued good health and safety.

The NWT Team
